

David Wilkerson Bio

David Wilkerson was elected to the Georgia House of Representatives in 2010 and serves the 38th District, located in West and South Cobb. He serves on the Juvenile Justice, Retirement, Budget and Fiscal Affairs Oversight, and Science and Technology committees.

Following the 2018 election, David was selected as the Chairman of the Cobb County Legislative Delegation. He previously served as member of the House Leadership team as Treasurer for the Democratic Caucus and was the first African American elected to lead the Cobb County Democratic Party.

David graduated from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University with a degree in Accounting. After graduation, David moved to Cobb County to begin his professional career at the Big 4 accounting firm, Deloitte & Touché, where he earned his CPA credentials. He and his wife Penny have two children and reside in Powder Springs. Their children attend public school where David and Penny are active volunteers. The family attends Macland Presbyterian Church in Powder Springs. David enjoys a variety of sports and coaches a youth soccer team.